Administrative Information

Provenance

The papers of George Kennan, explorer, journalist, and author were given to the Library of Congress by Kennan in 1903 and by his wife, Emeline Weld Kennan, from 1925 to 1937. An addition was purchased in 1969.

Processing History

The Kennan Papers were processed in 1951 and expanded in 1973. The finding aid was revised in 2013.

Additional Guides

A card index compiled by Kennan of the Numbered Notes File in the collection is available in the Manuscript Reading Room.

Transfers

Items have been transferred from the Manuscript Division to other custodial divisions of the Library. Photographs, prints, and drawings have been transferred to the Prints and Photographs Division. Maps have been transferred to the Geography and Map Division. All transfers are identified in these divisions as part of the George Kennan Papers.

Copyright Status

The status of copyright in the unpublished writings of George Kennan is governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.).

Access and Restrictions

The papers of George Kennan are open to research. Researchers are advised to contact the Manuscript Reading Room prior to visiting. Many collections are stored off-site and advance notice is needed to retrieve these items for research use.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of George Kennan (1845-1924) span the years 1840-1937 and consists of correspondence, family letters, notes and notebooks, articles, diaries, journals, clippings, lecture material, printed matter, memorabilia, autobiographical and biographical material, photographs, and maps. The collection is particularly detailed for Czarist Russia and Siberia, where Kennan made extensive explorations and prepared studies on social conditions, the prisons, and the exile system. Other materials deal with travels and events in Japan, Korea, Cuba, the Caucasus, Arctic regions, and Martinique (where Kennan reported the Mont Pelée eruption of 1902). Included are studies of the flowers of Nova Scotia, papers concerning the Alexander Graham Bell family, and correspondence of Kennan's wife, Emeline Rathbone Weld Kennan. Among the correspondents in the papers are Ekaterina Konstantinovna Breshko-Breshkovskaiā, Robert Lansing, Walter Hines Page, Theodore Roosevelt, S. Stepniak, F. Volkhovskī, and Stephen Wise.

The collection is organized into eight series: Correspondence; Diaries, Journals, and Notebooks; Notes File; Lecture Materials and Articles; Newspaper Clippings; Printed Matter; Miscellany; and Addition.
